

Eye on Coaching:

A Collaborative Exploration of Emerging Principles and Practice

Summer Institute - June 24-25, 2011

Join coaches, trainers, educators, counsellors, HR professionals, and organizational leaders for two lively days exploring the value, challenges and potential of coaching in the light of current research and practice.

Through interactive sessions, panel discussions and featured keynotes:

- share perspectives on coaching practices, models and frameworks
- hear about award-winning coaching experiences
- learn from innovative leaders and researchers in the field
- expand coaching awareness and skills
- consider coaching's growing impact on organizations, businesses and individuals.

Contributors include:

SARA OREM, PhD, management consultant, coaching educator and co-author of Appreciative Coaching: A Positive Process (2007) and A Coach's Guide to Asset-Based Thinking & Appreciative Coaching (2010)

NORM AMUNDSON, PhD, UBC Professor of Counselling and Educational Psychology, and the author of numerous books including most recently, Hope-Filled Engagement (2011) and Metaphor Making (2010)

IAN MACNAUGHTON, MBA, PhD, executive coach, organizational consultant, and psychotherapist in private practice

JEFFREY KEARNEY, executive coach, mentor, business owner and consultant

PATRICK RYAN, executive coach, leadership trainer and author of Awakened Wisdom: A Guide to Reclaiming Your Brilliance (2010).

Friday-Saturday, June 24-25, 8:30am-5:30pm

Ponderosa Centre, UBC Point Grey. $495+HST. Earlybird rate: Save $60 for registrations received by May 31. Fee includes lunches and refreshment breaks for both days.

The Eye on Coaching Summer Institute is a collaboration of UBC Continuing Studies and UBC Human Resources, Organizational Development & Learning.

lifeandcareer.ubc.ca/eyeoncoaching
604-822-0138

